cologne rendez-vous

proposed timetable

Cavell and GLOBAL Re have come together again to organise a Rendez-Vous in Cologne. For the fifth event of this kind in continental Europe, we have once again chosen the Marriott Hotel as it has proven to be the perfect location to further improve networking opportunities and commutation discussions.

The cost will be €550 per delegate, plus we have negotiated special room rates (including breakfast) at the Marriott of €159 (Deluxe single) or €179 (Deluxe double) or €218 (Executive single) or €238 (Executive double) per room. The rates are available only until 8 January 2010. To book deluxe accommodation online, see details on page 4. To book executive accommodation, you will have to call the Marriott - just mention the keyword 'Commutations Rendez-Vous' when you book your room to receive reduced rates.

On both conference days delegates will have the opportunity to attend presentations covering current market issues. A detailed programme will be listed on the website.

GLOBAL Re has successfully completed the transfer from an active reinsurance company to a run-off service provider. Still managing our own run-off, we face similar tasks and challenges as our clients and can respond to their needs from own experience.

We support our clients with all desired processes from portfolio analysis to finality solutions. With 10 locations in Europe, America and Asia, the company can offer services on a truly world-wide basis.

It is our special pleasure to host the Cologne Rendez-Vous for Commutations and Networking together with Cavell. Now in its fifth year it will continue to grow and bring together run-off professionals from many countries, demonstrating that Cologne is established as Germany's major run-off marketplace.

CAVELL

Cavell, based in the UK and US, provides services to the international insurance and reinsurance markets.

The group offers clients dedicated teams of professionals focused on providing efficient and cost-effective run-off management services – seeking to optimize liquidity, manage liabilities and, where required, create finality for clients.

Commutation enables counter-parties to close out old business and this event will provide an ideal forum for such negotiations. We believe this event will grow over the years and become an 'essential' event to attend for those involved with discontinued lines businesses.
